Membership dues paid to The Virginia Plumbing and Mechanical Inspectors Association ("VPMIA") are not tax deductible as charitable contributions for Federal income tax purposes. Furthermore, the tax deductibility of dues paid to VPMIA under other sections of the Internal Revenue Code (i.e. as an ordinary and necessary business expense) is subject to restrictions imposed as a result of lobbying activities. VPMIA estimates that the nondeductible lobbying portion of your 2015 dues is 3%. We estimate the nondeductible lobbying percentage of your 2016 dues payment to be 3%.
